Tetris 2 is back!

Tetris 2, the popular sequel to the megahit Tetris, is back and more fun than ever on Super NES!

Tetris 2 consists of red, blue, and yellow blocks. In addition to having different colored blocks, the game also features three block types: Falling Blocks, Flash Blocks and Fixed Blocks. The object of Tetris 2 is to arrange the Falling Blocks so three or more blocks of the same color line up horizontally or vertically. When a horizontal or vertical match occurs, the similarly colored blocks disappear. To win, you must strategically place your Falling Blocks and eliminate all Fixed Blocks from the screen.

While maintaining the sophisticated simplicity of the original Tetris game, Tetris 2 moves forward with exciting puzzles that are more captivating than ever!

Block Types

There are different blocks that appear in Tetris 2: Flash Blocks, Fixed Blocks and Falling Blocks. Each of these block types appear in three colors.

FLASH BLOCKS

The Flash Blocks play a key role in this game. They also have a different effect in the 1-player and 2-Player games. Try eliminating these blocks to see how they can help you win.

FIXED BLOCKS

These blocks appear on the screen before the game begins and restrict movement of the Falling Blocks. To win the game or advance to the next stage, you must eliminate all Fixed Blocks from the screen.

FALLING BLOCKS

These blocks drop from the top of the screen and help you eliminate Fixed Blocks. As displayed to the right, Falling Blocks appear in nine forms.

All Falling Blocks consist of four smaller blocks connected on one side.

In diagrams 7, 8, and 9 at right, the circles on the Falling Blocks indicate the point where the blocks separate after landing on a Fixed Block in the playing field.

To eliminate blocks from the screen, move the Falling Blocks so they match up with other blocks and create a horizontal or vertical line. The blocks disappear each time you create a row of three or more similarly colored blocks.

Arrange the Falling Block so you can make a row of three red blocks disappear.

Drop this Falling Block so the blue blocks make a vertical line and disappear.

CHAIN REACTION!!!

A Chain Reaction occurs if you eliminate two or more rows using one Falling Block. Chain Reactions are worth many extra points in the 1-Player game and help you sabotage your opponent's playing field in a 2-Player game.

The red blocks disappear...

causing the blue blocks to drop and create a new match!

How to Play the 1-Player Game

To advance in the 1-Player game, you must move the Falling Blocks and position them in rows and columns causing similarly colored Fixed Blocks and Flash Blocks to disappear. If you erase a Flash Block, all blocks of the same color in the playing field will disappear.

Your game ends if you allow at least one block to touch the top of the playing field.

If you eliminate all Flash Blocks, all Fixed Blocks will disappear and you will advance to the next level.

Remove the red Flash Block... to make all red Fixed Blocks disappear.

As you do on the Game Selection Screen, press the A Button or the START Button to make a selection on the Round Selection Screen.

ROUND

The higher rounds will challenge you with more Fixed Blocks and faster Falling Blocks.

SCORING SYSTEM (1-PLAYER GAME)

Falling Blocks	10 points each
Fixed Blocks	20 points each

1 Player Game continued

FLASH BLOCKS ELIMINATED BY CHAIN REACTIONS

The score is determined as follows:
(# of Fixed Blocks
erased with Flash Blocks) x (# of chains)
x (40 points).

BONUS SCORING

In addition to the bonus points for chain reactions, you will receive bonus points for finishing a round quickly. If you're fast, you can also receive credits that will automatically remove up to 10 Fixed Blocks from the playing field on the next stage.

Note. You will not receive any points for the blocks that disappear after you remove the last Flash Block or following the six block technique described later in this manual.

CHAIN REACTIONS

The score for each Chain Reaction is determined using the following formula:
(# of blocks erased) x (points for each block)
x (chain reaction bonus).

Chain Reaction Bonus	Bonus Factor
one chain	x2
two chains	x4
three or more chains	x8

How to Play the Puzzle Game

Although the basic rules of the Puzzle Game are similar to those of the 1-Player game, the object of this mode is to eliminate all blocks from the playing field using a predetermined number of Falling Blocks. During the Puzzle Game, you can quit and try again by pressing the SELECT Button. This feature is useful if you realize that you've made mistake before using all of your Falling Blocks.

Selecting "Puzzle" on the game selection screen will make the continue screen displayed below appear.

How to Play the 1-Player vs. 2 Player Game

Both players start the game simultaneously.

You win the game if you eliminate all blocks from your game screen or if the blocks on your opponent's screen stack up to the top of the playing field. The first player to win three games wins the match.

If you erase a Flash Block in the 2-Player Game, a similarly colored Fixed Block will change into a Flash Block.

HOW TO ATTACK YOUR OPPONENT

There are two methods that you can use to attack your opponent.

Lowering the Water Level

Each time you eliminate a Flash Block, the water level in your opponent's playing field decreases. If your opponent erases a Flash Block in his or her field, the water level will increase to its original position. This action works like a game of "Tug of War."

Make Your Opponent's Blocks Drop Faster

Your opponent's Falling Blocks will temporarily drop faster each time you get a Chain Reaction to occur on your playing field. The number of your opponent's blocks that are affected is proportionate to the number of chains that disappear from your screen.

How to Play the 1-Player vs. 2 Com Game

You can also play a 2-Player game against the computer using the 1-Player vs. COM game. The rules and strategies are similar to the 1-Player vs. 2-Player game.

Before you play, you must first select a computer opponent on the Player Selection Screen.

To select an opponent on the Player Selection Screen, press the A Button or START Button after selecting the character with the +Control Pad. Once you've selected a character, the Round Selection Screen will appear.

If you would like to change the computer player's speed and round setting, move the cursor by simultaneously pressing the L or R Buttons and the +Control Pad.

INTRODUCTION OF COMPUTER PLAYERS

Easy

This character is for beginning players. She makes many mistakes and does not move her Falling Blocks very quickly.

Normal

Although he doesn't seem to be very tough, this character doesn't make many mistakes and may steal a victory from you if you're careless.

Hard

These guys gang up and attack accurately and swiftly. They also move the Falling Blocks very quickly and are very tough to beat if you're not on top of your game.

Hints and Tips

Tetris 2 requires many skills including the ability to quickly determine the blocks' colors, locations, and arrangements. You must also be able to use your Falling Blocks efficiently to avoid creating extra blocks that prevent you from easily erasing the Fixed Blocks.

Below is an introduction to the advanced strategy of Tetris 2. Try these techniques to see if you have more fun and success...

Filling an Empty Space With a Block

Try to quickly fill spaces with blocks so that...

more than three blocks of the same color can easily disappear.

Controlling Advanced Blocks

Carefully guide the block with detachable pieces...

so you can easily place the loose blocks and create a solid row or column.

Secret Technique: Eliminating Six Blocks!!

If more than six blocks of the same color make a vertical or horizontal line, all the blocks with the same color on the game screen will disappear.

You can remove six blocks if a straight block containing four pieces with the same color is placed onto two pieces of the same color.
